

Alex Wakeford & Toni Harman
Filmmakers Behind FREEDOM FOR BIRTH

Alex Wakeford & Toni Harman are the British filmmaking couple behind FREEDOM FOR BIRTH. They met at the London Film School and over the past fifteen years, together they have made an internationally released feature film, award-winning short films and several documentaries.

After the difficult birth of their daughter nearly five years ago, they decided to turn their attention to making films about birth. They created ONE WORLD BIRTH – a crossmedia platform of videos and films about birth.

Over the past two years, Alex and Toni have travelled from the UK to France, Hungary, the Netherlands, Canada and the USA, filming the world's leading birth experts, lawyers, doctors, academics, midwives, doulas and campaigners.

Their first full-length documentary film released under their ONE WORLD BIRTH banner is their new film about Human Rights in childbirth called FREEDOM FOR BIRTH.
